Day 1: Join Ionosphere Tours as we begin our exciting fly/drive tour to the West Coast! During the next 9 days we will explore some of North America’s most beautiful scenery. Late this afternoon we are transported to Atlanta for overnight accommodations near Hartsfield International Airport, due to an early morning flight tomorrow.

Day 2: Today we leave the South behind as we fly from Atlanta bound for Portland, Oregon. Upon arrival we’ll turn south along the scenic, rugged Oregon coast, making our way all the way to tiny North Bend, Oregon for an included dinner and overnight. (D)

Day 3: After breakfast we are on our way, continuing along the coast of Oregon to Gold Beach. Here, where the Rogue River empties into the Pacific Ocean, we board a Mail Boat for our unforgettable Jet Boat excursion up the river to the tiny town of Agnes. In this modern world, this Mail Boat is still the only way folks here have of getting their mail! Back onboard our motorcoach, we cross the state line into northern California, destined for majestic Redwood National Park. Our route carries us deep into the heart of America’s greatest Redwood Forest, where the tall trees block the sunlight from the sky above. Dinner and overnight are in the lumber town of Eureka, California. (B,D)

Day 4: Following breakfast this morning we leave Eureka behind, traveling through another magnificent Redwood Preserve, Humboldt Redwood State Park, along the awesome “Avenue of the Giants”. The San Francisco skyline is a sight that is sure to take your breath away as we dip toward San Francisco Bay, and enter the incredible span of the Golden Gate Bridge. We spend the night in the city by the Bay, San Francisco, California. Dinner is included in the Fisherman’s Wharf area, before we call it a day. (B,D)

Day 5: We meet our local guide this morning after breakfast, as we enjoy a guided tour of San Francisco. Up and down the hills of San Francisco we go, learning of her history, marveling at her architecture, and hearing tales of the fascinating glory days of this marvelous West Coast city. Following our city tour we’ll have some free time for browsing and lunch on our own in the Fisherman’s Wharf area. Some may want to ride on the world famous “cable cars”. By early afternoon we depart for San Jose, home of the Winchester Mystery House. The tour of the house, the former home of Winchester rifle heiress, Sarah Winchester, will send chills down your spine! Then the big cities are gone as we travel into the beauty of Pebble Beach Golf Course, admiring the coastal splendor of the 17-Mile Drive, all the way to historic Monterey. We spend the night in this area, and Dinner will be included tonight. (B,D)
DAY 6: Following breakfast we enter the road that has been acclaimed as one of the most magnificent scenic drives in all the world - Untouched landscapes of the Pacific Coast lie to our east, and the cliffs of the shoreline drop off dramatically to our west, as we make our way down the coast. Our destination is the mysterious town of San Simeon, where we enjoy a tour of the home that for years was seen by common folks only with the aid of a telescope, Hearst Castle. Home of millionaire William Randolph Hearst, this estate is second in size only to North Carolina’s Biltmore House, near Asheville. Included Dinner and overnight are in the Santa Barbara, California area. (B,D)

DAY 7: Following breakfast it is a short drive south into sprawling Los Angeles. We’ll take a riding tour of the “City of Angels”. In the heart of Hollywood, we’ll recognize the familiar façade of Grauman’s Chinese theater. We’ll make a short stop here to take pictures of the footprints, handprints, and autographs cast in the concrete outside the theatre’s doors. Following lunch at the Farmer's Market, we will visit the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum in Simi Valley, built around a courtyard and set on a hilltop with beautiful views. We will spend the next two nights in this area, and dinner will be included. (B,D)

DAY 8: Following breakfast this morning, we again follow the coast south for a short distance, pausing to pay a visit to Mission San Juan Capistrano, along the old Camino Real, enroute sunny to San Diego. Following an included lunch in the Old Town area, we will enjoy a bay cruise seeing the Naval Air Station, Naval Sub Base and Cabrillo National Monument. We return to the Los Angeles area for overnight again. (B,L)

DAY 9: It's hard to believe, but today our tour of the Wonders of the West Coast comes to a close. We've got so much to tell our friends back home. We board our plane early this morning and wing our way back to Atlanta. (B)
