

OUR NATIONAL PARKS

INCLUDES -BADLANDS, MT. RUSHMORE, YELLOWSTONE,
GRAND CANYON, ZION & BRYCE CANYONS

16 Days/15 Nights
September 8 - 23, 2018
Tour includes 30 Meals
& 6 National Parks!

Day 1: Join Ionosphere Tours as we begin our MOST POPULAR tour of the West. During the next 16 days we will be visiting 18 states and seeing some of the country's most beautiful National Parks. Today we leave the South behind and travel through Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky enroute to Illinois and our overnight accommodations in Marion. Dinner will be included tonight. (D)

Day 2: Today we find ourselves crossing the Mississippi River as we pass through St. Louis, Missouri, the "Gateway to the West". Missouri, the Show Me State, is rich in history and celebrities, bringing to mind Meriwether Lewis and William Clark, the Sante Fe Trail and Harry S. Truman. Lunch will be included today in Columbia, MO. By late afternoon we arrive in the Omaha, Nebraska area, where we spend the night. (B, L)

Day 3: Following breakfast we continue our journey, spending much of the morning in Iowa, before turning westward into South Dakota. This afternoon we take the loop drive through Badlands National Park, making a stop at the Visitor's Center. Dinner tonight will be included in Wall, South Dakota, home to the famous Wall Drug Store--a most unusual place. Following an included dinner we continue on to the Rapid City area, where we have accommodations for the next two nights at the scenic and beautiful K-Bar-S Lodge near Keystone. (B,D)

Day 4: Following included breakfast at the ranch, a full day of breathtaking scenery and historical points of interest is in store for us. Our guided tour will include Mount Rushmore National Memorial and Custer State Park. We'll have an included dinner at the Lodge. (B,D)

Day 5: We get an early start and travel into Wyoming this morning. We head toward Sheridan in the Big Horn Mountains, the scene of many fierce battles between the U.S. Cavalry and the Sioux, Cheyenne and Crowe Indians. Our overnight stay is in Buffalo Bill's frontier town of Cody, Wyoming. Our included dinner tonight will be at Buffalo Bill's historic Irma Hotel in Cody. (B,D)

Day 6: Following breakfast we'll experience one of the highlights of our tour as we drive through the Shoshone National Forest, enroute to Yellowstone National Park. We arrive late in the morning and welcome our Park Service Guide onboard for a tour of this magnificent park. Established in 1872 and covering 3,472 square miles, Yellowstone was the world's first National Park. Along the way on our tour, we'll marvel at the picturesque Grand Canyon of Yellowstone, Yellowstone Lake, the Paintpots, and Old Faithful. Lunch will be included today at the Old Faithful Inn. Our accommodations are in West Yellowstone, Montana, at the western entrance to the Park. (B,L)

Day 7 : This morning’s journey carries us into the even more spectacular scenery of Grand Teton National Park. Few mountain ranges have a greater variety of glaciated canyons than the Tetons. We’ll stop at the Coulter Bay Visitor Center, Jenny Lake, and the Chapel of Transfiguration, as we travel through the Park. We continue on to Jackson, Wyoming, where we have free time this afternoon to explore this city, the center of activity for ranchers and vacationers in Jackson Hole country. We continue westward into Idaho, where we will spend the night in Idaho Falls, following an included Dinner. (B,D)

Day 8: Following breakfast we head south into Utah. Just east of Salt Lake City we will visit Park City, where we will have free time and lunch on our own in the historic Main Street area. We’ll also make a stop at the Olympic Park where we can see the athletes in training on the ski slopes year round. Next, we head for Salt Lake City, where we have accommodations tonight. Founded in 1847 by the Mormons under the leadership of Brigham Young, the city first became the capital of the Mormon settlement and then of the state of Utah. This evening we’ll have an included meal at one of the area’s favorite restaurants. (B,D)

Day 9: We depart Salt Lake City this morning and ride through the sagebrush landscape of southern Utah. By lunchtime we arrive in Bryce, Utah, where we’ll enjoy an included lunch at Ruby’s Inn Restaurant and Steakhouse. As we enter Bryce Canyon National Park, we welcome our Park Guide onboard as we explore this area that includes some of the earth’s most colorful rocks. Bryce is not a true canyon, but series of horseshoe-shaped amphitheatres carved in the edge of a plateau by tributaries of the Paria River. An Indian name for the area translates, as “red rocks standing like men in a bowl-shaped canyon”. We’ll spend the night at Ruby’s Inn, where we will have the evening free to explore the hotel and have dinner on our own. (B,L)

Day 10: Following breakfast we’ll head south to Zion National Park, enjoying a narrated tram tour of this beautiful area that was once a refuge for Mormon pioneers. Desert terrain and huge, sculpted rock formations co-exist with waterfalls and hanging gardens. Gigantic stone masses seem to guard the canyon floor and spectacular gorges. As we depart the park we’ll stop for a rest stop at the Thunderbird Lodge at Mt. Carmel Junction, before heading south into Arizona. Dinner will be included tonight at the Cameron Trading Post, near the Desert View entrance to Grand Canyon National Park. By early evening we arrive at the south entrance of Grand Canyon, spending the next two nights in Tusayan. (B,D)

Day 11: We have an entire day to experience the magic of one of the world’s most outstanding spectacles--Grand Canyon National Park. In form glowing color and geological significance, the Grand Canyon is unsurpassed. We begin the day with a guided tour to Hermit’s Rest. The remainder of the day is free to explore on our own as we take advantage of the free minibus service along the West Rim Drive to many scenic points. Dinner will be included in the Park tonight followed by a sunset tour along the south rim of the Grand Canyon onboard the Park Transportation bus. (B,D)

Day 12: Following breakfast this morning, we turn east toward New Mexico. Our destination is Albuquerque, where we have accommodations for the night. Spread out before the dramatic Sandia Mountains, Albuquerque is the metropolis of New Mexico, where past and present mingle. Lunch will be included today at Earl’s Restaurant in Gallup, New Mexico. (B,L)

Day 13: Following breakfast this morning, we’re off for an exciting ride on the Sandia Peak Tramway, an aerial tram which lofts passengers to the top of 10,000-foot Sandia Peak. The 2.7 mile ride is the longest clear and unsupported span in North America. The view, both east and west, is spectacular! Next, we’ll have free time and lunch in Old Town, the original Albuquerque founded in 1706. Old Town clusters around a plaza and San Felipe de Meri Church. The warmth of aged adobe adds a special charm to its shops, galleries, restaurants and hidden patios. We can look here for bargains on silver and turquoise jewelry. Our destination today is Amarillo, in the Texas panhandle. Dinner will be included at the World Famous Big Texan Steak Ranch, home of the free 72 oz. steak challenge. (B,D)

Day 14: We continue our journey today as we head southeast and enter the "Sooner State"-- Oklahoma. By late afternoon we arrive in the Capital City, Oklahoma City. Despite a sleek and sophisticated appearance, Oklahoma City has not forgotten its Western and Indian heritage. The 39 Indian tribes still represented in the state hold regular tribal activities in and around the city. We'll make a stop at the Oklahoma City National Memorial. The Outdoor Symbolic Memorial is a place of quiet reflection. This Memorial honors the victims, survivors, rescuers, and all who were changed forever on April 19, 1995. It encompasses the now-sacred soil where the Murrah Building once stood, as well as the surrounding area devastated during the attack. We spend the night here, where cowboys still practice their trade at the horse and cattle ranches in the surrounding area. Dinner will be included tonight. (B,D)

Day 15: We head for Tennessee this morning as we journey eastward. We arrive in Jackson, Tennessee, where we have accommodations for the night. We'll enjoy our farewell dinner at Casey Jones Village Restaurant tonight. (B,D)

Day 16: We'll spend our last day of this tour traveling through the beautiful mountains of Tennessee as we turn our thoughts toward home. As we near home we are reminded of the words to America, the Beautiful. What a wonderful journey we have shared! (B)
